Performer's note:

- This experience would best suit a student preparing for a Grade 7 – Diploma exam in June 2012, who have their baroque work well underway. Teachers are welcome to play for Danielle too.
- May submit two works if 30 or 40mins time is purchased. Priority will be given to baroque repertoire. If there is time available we would be pleased to hear another work from your traditional programme, ie. not pop.
- Please note, performers must bring a second copy of their pieces for the tutor. (If photocopies are provided these will be destroyed at the end of the day in accordance with copyright laws).
- Booking and payment preferred by Wednesday, 14th December however entries taken up to 13th January 2012. Remember, there is only under 2 hours scheduled for a workshop with Danielle. Reserve your place ASAP.
