Beethoven: Resources and Stories

How do we bring composers to life for our students?

In this year of Beethoven's 250th birthday, Susan Deas will discuss how to help our students understand more about this great composer. Learn about where to find great resources, including pictures, portraits and videos and hear fascinating stories you can tell your students.

The Annual General Meeting of the MTA of NSW will be held during this workshop see details below. Members are advised that if they wish to only attend the AGM there is no charge
